Al Rayan Bank reserves the right to review its charges at any time. Any change to our charges will be advised to customers in writing in advance.

Glossary of terms

| Term | Definition |
|--|---|
| Allowing a payment despite lack of funds | The account provider allows a payment to be made from the customer's account although there is not enough money in it (or it would take the customer past their arranged overdraft limit). |
| Arranged overdraft | The account provider and the customer agree in advance that the customer may go overdrawn when there is no money left in the account. The agreement determines a maximum amount that can be overdrawn, and whether fees and charges will be charged to the customer. As a Sharia compliant bank, we do not offer this service. |
| BACS | This is an electronic system to make payments directly from one bank account to another. |
| Banker's draft | A banker's draft is a cheque provided to a customer of a bank or acquired from a bank for remittance purposes, that is drawn by the bank, and drawn on another bank or payable through or at a bank. |
| Cancelling a cheque | The customer asks the account provider to cancel a cheque that the customer has written. |
| Cash withdrawal in foreign currency outside the UK | The customer takes cash out of the customer's account in foreign currency at a cash machine or, where available, at a bank outside the UK. |
| Cash withdrawal in pounds in the UK | The customer takes cash out of the customer's account in pounds at a cash machine, bank or Post Office in the UK. |
| CHAPS | Payments in Sterling to UK accounts that are guaranteed to reach the recipient on the same day (subject to the payment cut-off time). |
| Cheque | An order to a bank to pay a stated sum from the drawer's account, written on a specially printed form. |
| Debit card | A card allowing the holder to transfer money electronically from their bank account when making a purchase. |
| Debit card payment in a foreign currency | The customer uses their debit card to make a payment in foreign currency. This can be in a shop, online or over the phone. |
| Debit card payment in pounds | The customer uses their debit card to make a payment in pounds. This can be in a shop, online or over the phone. |
| Direct Debit | The customer permits someone else (recipient) to instruct the account provider to transfer money from the customer's account to that recipient. The account provider then transfers money to the recipient on a date or dates agreed by the customer and the recipient. The amount may vary. |
