Section A: Words with special meanings

These Terms and Conditions ('conditions') set out below apply to the Current Account charges.

These conditions are in addition to the Consumer Banking Terms and Conditions and any Special Conditions which apply to our banking services generally, copies of which we give you when you first become a customer (further copies are available from us on request).

These conditions, the Consumer Banking Terms and Conditions and any Special Conditions form the agreement between us for the provision of our banking services.

In the event of a conflict between these conditions, Consumer Banking Terms and Conditions and any Special Conditions, these conditions shall apply.

In these conditions, words are used that have special meanings. We have put these special words in bold text to help you identify what those special words mean when used in these conditions.

The following are the special words that are used together with their special meanings:

Special word	Meaning
charging period	The period over which the account charge covers, which is equal to a full calendar month.
counter fee	A charge applied for a transaction completed at a counter in the Bank's Knightsbridge Branch.
fee waiver requirements	The requirements that must be met for the monthly maintaining the account charge and the counter fee to be waived. These requirements are detailed in our Tariff List.

Special word	Meaning
maintaining the account	The account provider operates the account for use by the customer. (A monthly charge applied to all Current Accounts held by customers of Al Rayan Bank (UK) who do not hold a UK passport and their main residence is not considered to be in the UK)
we, us and our	Al Rayan Bank (UK) PLC. Registration No. 4483430. Registered office: 44 Hans Crescent, Knightsbridge, London, SW1X 0LZ.
you and your	The person or persons signing the application form. The words you and your are to be constructed according to the text.

Section B: Account charge

1. Summary of account charges and counter fee

1.1 If you do not:

(a) hold a UK passport; and

(b) your main place of residence is not considered to be the UK

A monthly maintaining the account charge will apply to any Current Account you hold with Al Rayan Bank. In some cases, a counter fee may also apply. The monthly maintaining the account charge and counter fees are detailed in our Tariff List.

1.2 From time to time, we may change the maintaining the account charge and counter fees that apply, if we do this we will write to you. We will provide you with 60 days' notice of our intention to change the maintaining the account charge and counter fees.

1.3 The maintaining the account charge and the counter fees may be waived depending on the products you hold with Al Rayan Bank and the value of the balances that relate to those products. For details on the fee waiver requirements of the maintaining the account charge and counter fees please see our Tariff List.

2. How are the fees applied?

2.0 The first charging period commences on the first day of the first month after the month in which you became a customer of Al Rayan Bank and liable for the maintaining the account charge and counter fee. Maintaining the account charge and counter fees will be applied regardless of whether you have funded your account(s) or not. Please refer to clause 4 for further details.

2.1 On the last working day of the month, we will check your Al Rayan Bank product holdings and account balances and if you qualify for a waiver of the maintaining the account charge fee you will not be charged for that charging period. Where you are required to pay a maintaining the account charge, the charge will be deducted from your Current Account on the last working day of the month.

2.2 Where a counter fee applies, this will be debited from your account at the end of the day on the day that the transaction is made, unless the transaction is made on a Saturday, in which case the fee will be debited at the end of the next business working day.

3. Customers with multiple accounts and joint account holders

- 3.0 If you hold more than one Current Account with Al Rayan Bank, you may have to pay more than one maintaining the account charges.
- 3.1 For joint Current Account holders, the maintaining the account charge and counter fee will be waived if either of the Current Account holders in their own name meet any of the fee waiver requirements, or if in aggregate both joint Current Account holders meet the fee waiver requirements.
- 3.2 However, holders of a Current Account jointly (the “joint account”) and who, individually hold other Current Accounts separately, may still be required to pay the maintaining the account charge and counter fees on Current Accounts that they hold separately and not jointly with the person or people as the “joint account”. This applies even if they have, as a holder of a joint account met the requirements for a waiver in respect of the joint account, unless they and the same joint holders also hold another joint account to which the waiver would still apply.

4. What happens if a customer cannot pay the account charges or counter fees?

- 4.1 If you do not hold a balance that allows us to debit any maintaining the account charge or counter fees, or if in the future your account balances drop below a level that does not allow us to debit any maintaining the account charge or counter fees, or if you do not pay any maintaining the account charge or counter fees as they become due, we have the right to:
- (a) refuse you any or all of the Banking services that we provide, and;
 - (b) suspend any debit cards that might be operational on any of your accounts, and;
 - (c) close one or all of the accounts that you hold with Al Rayan Bank
- 4.2 If we are entitled to take any of the actions described in clause 4.1, we will contact you in advance before we take this action and we will give you 30 days’ notice from the point of contact to bring your account balances up to a sufficient level to enable us to debit the maintaining the account charge and counter fee.
- 4.3 In relation to clause 4.2, you should note that due to the 30 days’ notice, the amount required to bring your account balances up to a sufficient level may be greater than the level of maintaining the account charge or counter fees outstanding if the 30 days’ notice period overlaps more than one charging period.
