Glossary of terms

Term	Definition
Allowing a payment despite lack of funds	The account provider allows a payment to be made from the customer's account although there is not enough money in it (or it would take the customer past their arranged overdraft limit).
Arranged overdraft	The account provider and the customer agree in advance that the customer may go overdrawn when there is no money left in the account. The agreement determines a maximum amount that can be overdrawn, and whether fees and charges will be charged to the customer. As a Sharia compliant bank, we do not offer this service.
BACS	This is an electronic system to make payments directly from one bank account to another.
Banker's draft	A banker's draft is a cheque provided to a customer of a bank or acquired from a bank for remittance purposes, that is drawn by the bank, and drawn on another bank or payable through or at a bank.
Cancelling a cheque	The customer asks the account provider to cancel a cheque that the customer has written.
Cash withdrawal in foreign currency outside the UK	The customer takes cash out of the customer's account in foreign currency at a cash machine or, where available, at a bank outside the UK.
Cash withdrawal in pounds in the UK	The customer takes cash out of the customer's account in pounds at a cash machine, bank or Post Office in the UK.
CHAPS	Payments in Sterling to UK accounts that are guaranteed to reach the recipient on the same day (subject to the payment cut-off time).
Cheque	An order to a bank to pay a stated sum from the drawer's account, written on a specially printed form.
Debit card	A card allowing the holder to transfer money electronically from their bank account when making a purchase.
Debit card payment in a foreign currency	The customer uses their debit card to make a payment in foreign currency. This can be in a shop, online or over the phone.
Debit card payment in pounds	The customer uses their debit card to make a payment in pounds. This can be in a shop, online or over the phone.
Direct Debit	The customer permits someone else (recipient) to instruct the account provider to transfer money from the customer's account to that recipient. The account provider then transfers money to the recipient on a date or dates agreed by the customer and the recipient. The amount may vary.
Faster Payment Service	These are electronic payments that can be made online, over the phone, or in a branch, and can be made same day subject to payments cut-off time – so long as both banks are part of the Faster Payment Service.
Home Purchase Plan Premier	Home financing for overseas residents who are citizens of any countries not affiliated to the European Economic Area (EEA).
International Money Transfer	Transferring your money from the UK to another country.
Maintaining the account	The account provider operates the account for use by the customer.
PIN	Personal Identical Number - a number allocated to an individual and used to validate electronic transactions.
Receiving money from outside the UK	When money is sent to the customer's account from an account outside the UK.
Refusing a payment due to lack of funds	The account provider refuses a payment from the customer's account because there is not enough money in it (or it would take the customer past their arranged overdraft limit).

Sending money outside the UK	The account provider transfers money, on the instruction of the customer, from the customer's account to another account outside the UK.
Sending money within the UK	The account provider transfers money, on the instruction of the customer, from the customer's account to another account in the UK.
Standing Order	The account provider makes regular transfers, on the instruction of the customer, of a fixed amount of money from the customer's account to another account.
Unarranged overdraft	The customer goes overdrawn when there is no money left in the account (or when the customer has gone past their arranged overdraft limit) and this has not been agreed with the account provider in advance. As a Sharia compliant bank, we do not offer this service.
